First Gate

The main gate of the institute is known as the First Gate. This gate was a gift from the alumni of the year 1956, to mark the completion of 100 years of journey of the institute. The first gate of the college leads to the main academic buildings, the Halls of Residence, and the Grounds. It is where the journey of a student of IIST starts.

Director's House

The Residence of the director of the institute is one of the iconic structures of the institute. The white building nestled between Lush Greenery and situated behind the oval Ground forms a picturesque setting. The archaic architecture adds it to the list of the heritage buildings of the institute.

Clock Tower

This iconic structure is the most well-known of all and has always found its place in the logo of the institute. The Turret Clock of the Clock Tower was installed in the year 1921 and was donated by Sir Rajendranath Mukherjee, an alumnus of the 1883 batch, and chief engineer of Howrah Bridge and Victoria Memorial.

Odyssey

This is a Gallery of Historical Events. The journey of our institute from 1856 to the present day is carved in thirteen stone tablets. The 200 kg giant bell in the center is over a century old. In 1820, it was installed in a tower beside the then Bishop's College. It is said that the renowned poet Michael Madhusudan Dutta - who stayed in Bishop's College during that time - used to wake up in the morning hearing the sound of this bell.

Gymnasium

The century-old heritage athletic club building houses the gymnasium. GAABESU renovated the building, bought new equipment, and inaugurated the upgraded gymnasium in August 2014. For the overall fitness and a common recreation center, the Gymnasium plays a major role. It is well-equipped with modern instruments and sees students regularly in the evening or in the morning.
